

Downtown News from the U.N.: February 11, 2008

NEXT SOCIAL

It's all about MIDTOWN! Join us at the next Urban Neighbors social event when the Midtown Association will be on hand to give info about the incredible growth around 10th Street. Everyone is welcome; membership not required. February 21, 5-7 p.m., Café Do Brasil. Free appetizers, cash bar. More >>

DOWNTOWN DEVELOPMENT NEWS

(Excerpt from Skyline Snapshot, a Downtown OKC, Inc. report)

1492

Check out 1492 New World Latin Cuisine located at 1207 N Walker in MidTown. 1492 is a modern Latin restaurant and Bar. This smarter than your average local Latin Restaurant, has been fully design with a cool interior, glass walls and a great bar area where you can enjoy great cocktails.

BIG LEAGUE CITY

Citizens for a Big League City Launches Arena Campaign. Some Campaign Facts >>

> Election Day is Tuesday, March 4, 2008. The election is open to voters living within the City of Oklahoma City.

> This proposition will NOT raise taxes. The temporary one-cent tax will begin when the Maps for Kids sales tax elapses on January 1, 2009. The tax will last 12 months, with an additional three months if the City acquires an NBA team. Over 15 months, it will raise approximately $120 million. All improvements will be owned by the City of Oklahoma City.

> Timing for the election is driven by the SuperSonics' application to relocate to Oklahoma City, which is scheduled to be considered by the NBA Board of Governors in April.

DINNER IN THE DEUCE

@ Untitled ArtSpace until February 23

Art meets function at the exhibition Dinner in the Deuce at Untitled ArtSpace. Referencing the historic Deep Deuce neighborhood where the gallery is located, this unique exhibition experience includes over a dozen themed dinner tables created by artists from Oklahoma, Kansas, and Texas. The exhibit showcases how practical objects can be viewed as artistic sculpture. The artists handcrafted everything from the silverware to the chairs to the tablecloths and their work blends the ingenuity and design that can be brought to everyday life.

UNSUBSCRIBE:

Click here if you no longer wish to receive emails from Urban Neighbors.