Iguana Lounge Thursday Night!

Downtown residents, downtown enthusiasts - join us January 15 for Urban Neighbors' monthly social. This month we return to the Iguana Lounge from 5:30 -7:30 pm. Special guest will be Steve Mason, an Automobile Alley developer. Steve is looking to Urban Neighbors for feedback on how to use land and property in the area. We hope to see you there!

For more information about Steve Mason's Auto Alley endeavours, check out this video.

How often do you visit Bricktown?

Visit our homepage to answer this quick poll. Look for more of these types of polls and surveys in the future. The opinions of downtown residents and enthusiasts are valuable!

Save the Date! February 19, Urban Neighbors Annual General Meeting

The U.N. will be holding it's first AGM on Thursday, February 19, 2008, 6-7 pm. There will be U.N. Board elections, and the membership will vote on accepting the Audit Committee's report and setting the membership dues for the next year. More details, including location, to follow.

Interested in Becoming a UN Board Member?

Elections to the UN Board will be held at the UN AGM on February 19. The Board meets once a month and provides important guidance and direction for the organization. It also elects the executive officers of the organization. If you are a U.N. Resident Member and want to learn more or would like to nominate yourself, please contact Wynde Hammock who is the Nominations Committee Chair. You may also contact Brett Price UN President, or talk to any UN Board Member.
