

August 9, 2007

THE MIDCITY
ADVOCATE Serving the Heart of Oklahoma City

MidCityNews

Urban Neighbors to present downtown living options

Interested in downtown living? This month's Urban Neighbors meeting and social will be a good place to be. Many of the condo developers and apartment leasing agents will be assembled at the August meeting of Urban Neighbors, downtown's new neighborhood association.

The meeting is on Thursday, Aug. 9, from 5 to 7p.m. at Brew Ha Ha coffee shop, 222 E. Main Street in Bricktown.

Members and potential members are encouraged to get to know their neighbors and get engaged in the downtown community! Drinks and appetizers will be available.

For those interested in moving downtown or changing their current downtown residence, there will be a lot of good information. Stations will be set up around the room for the condo developers and leasing agents to pass out information and be on hand to answer questions about their properties.

Some of the representatives scheduled to be there include: The Hill, Block 42, Legacy at Arts Quarter, The Centennial, Garage Lofts, 5th Avenue Lofts, The Montgomery, Park Harvey, Triangle Development, and the Regency.

Urban Neighbors is also busy preparing for Board elections in September as well as soliciting committee participation from new members. In addition, Urban Neighbors is in the process of applying for a Neighborhood Partnership Grant, which provides for beautification and safety projects in low-moderate income areas. In downtown, this applies to the area east of the railroad tracks.

Downtown residents, future residents, business representatives and anyone interested in downtown are welcome to attend this Thursday.

For more information, visit the website at www.urbanneighbors.org.